

Sunday

Dear Mother and Dad -

Well, here I am in Amsterdam - as you can no doubt follow on the list - have spent up to this point as follows -

$115 at American Express before leaving which is $15 for D in addition to my own $100 -

Then I gave D twenty dollars in American money and changed $20 at Brussels - have $10 left. Food up to this point has been very inexpensive so we have eaten in small, strange places. So what I have given him should be enough for these ten days and for tips ($20 food at least).

We will be in London the morning of the 1st and we must be on the boat the afternoon of the 7th at 2:30 PM. which makes 6 nights there. Have just spoken to D about it and he insists I have enough because he would pay for my meals & everything in London but I absolutely refuse and if it would be possible to get $50 to me in London I would be very, very grateful. To ship my trunks & storage through Cherbourg & Jos Peg & the Reid

Had bill for May, June and then tipping for the maids, the concierge and the boys at Reid Hall who have carried my trunks around etc..
Then mother's gloves which were $6. and hope they will be what mums wanted. At any rate that's as clearly as I can account for you.. will be for the boat too.

Am quite tired since we have literally walked all over Reims, Luxembourg, Brussels, Bruges, Ghent and Antwerp. Have just come in from dinner in a funny old place and am now going to take a bath and go to bed. We will be here in Amsterdam 2 days and will be able to take things a little more easily.

The scenery has been beautiful throughout the trip and especially the little canals in Bruges - but D put his foot down so am bringing home no Belgium lace - and it was beautiful too!

Saw Mrs. Walker - dad's friend - before I left for dinner - but Mrs. Walker was sick

Saw Mr. Walker - dad's friend - before I left for dinner but Mrs. Walker was sick and so I didn't see her. But in discussing several things with Mr. Walker discovered that Mrs. Walker would be interested in some of the names & addresses Mme Ribault (Aunt Bertha's friend) gave me. So wrote a letter of thanks & included a detailed list of names, prices & addresses. Hope it helped her.

Everyone was just wonderful in leaving Paris - dinner, cocktails, etc. Met D's cousin Bingham new head of E.C.A. in Paris at the Gen. Rehm's going away cocktail and he is just wonderful.

D wants to write home so must give him the pen - you'd think writing rooms would have ink at least -
Much love
Jean

P.S. Mrs. MacLean wrote from London to see me and will write her for when he is finished.
